

Regarding docket 02-278, I feel that this would unduly weaken Indiana's current telephone privacy law. If we, as consumers, need to contact our banks, we know how to look up their phone numbers. We don't need any additional 'exceptions' to our current telephone privacy law, it works just fine, thank you.

Adam Keller